Library Homepage

The library has a wonderful, cool looking, new homepage that you can find as an icon on your computer desktop. Click it and see!!!! You can find your own account, the library database, search facilities, selected and age appropriate websites, we can put them on for your particular subjects (have a look, Google's so last year) a tutorial on the Harvard Referencing system (just in case you're a bit rusty!!), books of the week and amongst other brilliant things a quiz with the promise of a prize. Wow!!!! The library just gets better and better...

Great is the sun, and wide he goes,
Through empty heaven with repose;
And in the blue and glowing days,
More thick than rain he showers his rays

Though closer still the blinds we pull
To keep the shady parlour cool,
Yet he will find a chink or two
To slip his golden fingers through

Who wrote this fab poem? Sweetie prize on offer!

Call My Bluff

Call my bluff was a great success with staff and students alike and we would like to thank everyone who took part in this fun but extremely educational gameshow!!! We had teams from the Maths dept who were letting their eyes wander whilst assessing someone's charms, the English dept. with their bad habits and insatiable urges, the Science dept. who occasionally come across an insane person who thinks they are a wolf and Wayne, Tom G and Ian who have an overwhelming attraction for female nurses!!!! If you would like to be part of another wonderful gameshow in the library, watch this space!!!!

Knock knock.
Who's there?
Clothes on.
Clothes on who?

The Library's clothes for the summer,
but we'll be open again in September Yooo Hooo!

Oh well, the inevitable happened and England went out of the World Cup but all is not lost! If you or your friends are collecting the World Cup stickers, come along to the World Cup swap club at (we can be sad together), lunchtime, in the library on Wednesday at 1pm

The Bookworms' end of year outing is taking the form of a book swap down the Seven Stars on 8th July after school. All to meet in the staff room at 3.30pm. All are welcome, even non-book readers!!!! Be there or be square

Library Stock Take

Whilst I am slogging up the mighty hills of Dartmoor on my bicycle with a couple of extremely wayward teachers, Dorcas will be swanning around the library zapping every book in sight, to her hearts content. Just to make her job even easier the onerous task of asking you to return any books that belong to the library before the 8th July falls on me. You can of course take books out for the summer after this huge task has been completed. Thank you very much

Magazines

We now subscribe to the following magazines:- Focus – science, Geography Review – Geography, Now Weekly – gossip, Playstation, Gamesmaster and XBOX – computer games, Match – Football, Top Gear – cars, Vogue – Fashion, Total Film – Films, Mountain Biking – Bikes, Wave Length – Surfing. We hope that this appears a varied selection but if you do happen to subscribe to magazines yourself and would like to offload any, we would always be grateful for them
